SCHOOL AIDES

Mrs. Cuneo

Mr. Giusti

Mrs. Krentzman

"Discussion on school aides:

Aides were finally assigned to us to relieve teachers of non-teaching chores but now teachers have been assigned to other non-teaching chores. Also, aides turned out to be in the way: they are not allowed to take over a class; not allowed to work on records; not allowed Late Room or Health Room. Also, cafeteria workers resent them for just sitting around.

Conclusion: school aides to guard exits of building and challenge visitors.

SENIORS

STONES

Dear Miss Sanford, Dear Mr. James;

"In the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter, the sharing of pleasures and the deepening of the spirit."

"The teacher who walks in the shadow among his followers gives not just wisdom, but his faith and his lovingness."

You have been our friends;
You have been our teachers;
For your concern, your understanding, and your guidance,
The Class of 1970 says
Thank you.

Our Day Will Come
And we'll have everything,
We'll share the joy
Falling in love can bring,
No one can tell me
That I'm too young to know
I love you so
And you love me.

Our Day Will Come
If we just wait awhile,
No tears for us,
Think love and wear a smile,
Our dreams have magic Because we'll always stay
In love this way,
Our Day Will Come —
Our Day Will Come —

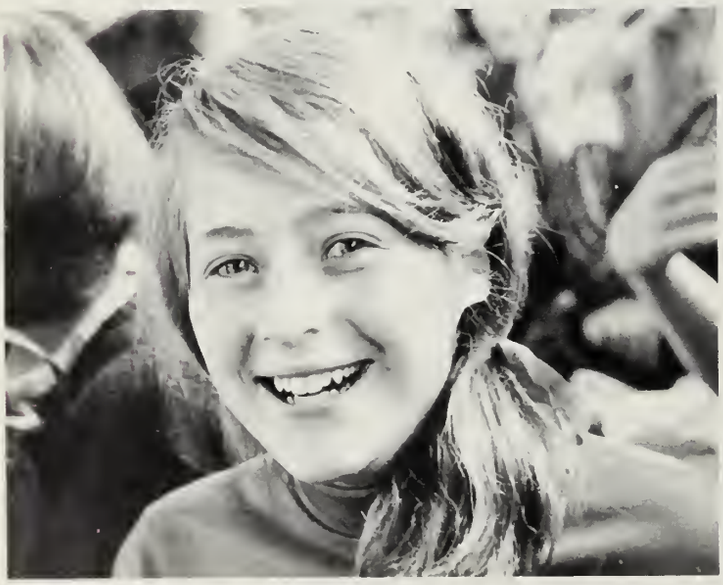
. . . . . the class of 1970 . . . . . .

. . . . . presents Mary Chase's . . . . . .

"HARVEY"

Those were the days, my friend;
we thought they'd never end;
we'd sing and dance forever and a day.



We'd live the life we choose;
we'd fight and never lose;
those were the days; oh yes,
those were the days.

We were talking — about the space between us all . .

alone,
people are merely faces to say hello to — it means nothing.
between classes you see other people together groups of people and it really hurts
when you're alone and you can't understand why people are so very far away.

grow,
then things begin to change,
you begin to talk to people, people begin to talk to you then talk goes beyond itself deeper more important people care they really do — you're happy and loneliness seems very far away.

now you walk down the street feeling good to be alone and you realize it wasn't the loneliness that was so bad before it was the emptiness.

I don't really care
About the other people
That live here.
But constantly I must pretend
To care.
I don't.
Most people don't.

What do you do with a world that doesn't care?

And the people — who hide themselves behind a wall of illusion Never glimpse the truth . . .

Fascinating to me,
Strange and powerful.
Death.

Hell
The End
A frog—Who knows?

No one.

Luckily, I think,
We often know too much.

A whole life
Cut, Gone, Ended.
Awful death.

But then . . .
For who?

He might have liked to live,
But now he's gone.
Just . . . . . gone. Forever.
He doesn't feel the pain.

And we stay to think it out.

But death is death.
It's over.
A life ends
And a thought begins—
Does it matter.
Does it really matter?

A friend exists and then does not.
It's . . . . . amazing.
Like, WOW, Death is a powerful thing.
To do something nothing else can do.

Meaning in life? in death? an afterlife?
But it's the end, I think.
No angels or cows or 6th hell.
No.

The Ultimate End.

How wonderful.
To live and end.

The first time you kissed me
You were very tender but
All I could think of were your big teeth.

The second time you kissed me
I felt your mouth,
Your lips and mine.

The third time you kissed me
I melted.

I can honestly say

I used to love you.

It was a child's love,

But isn't that even better?

No second thoughts

No reservations.

I wanted to be with you,

To touch you

To hold your hand

And even maybe to kiss you.

But now, I'm afraid it's too late.

With our love, with our love —
we could save the world
— if they only knew.

Try to realize it's all within yourself
no one else can make you change
And to see you're really only very small,

and life flows on within you and without you.

We were talking about the love that's gone so [illegible] the people who rain the world and lose their soul — they don't know — they can't see — are you one of them?

School is a hospital catering solely to outpatients discharged
when twelve years are up.
Treatment prescribed to correct a severe case of Ignorance.

At least that is how it is justified.
And Ignorance is so widespread that we all are afflicted at birth.

And some dedicate their whole lives that is, being partially cured,
they return to con (tinue the treatment).

Realization has wakened the nation to face a new method of curing disease.
Having force-fed the patient, try letting him eat on his own.

college pressure
I doodled these words on my notebook during an English class in my Freshman year college pressure—
at first the pressure is unbearable sometimes you're so busy working you forget about living—but college pressure is a funny thing and the closer you get to college, the more the living seems so much more important than the working.

Sooner or later, man will discover that every member of the human race, whether Black, Yellow, Red, or White, has a sensitive soul.

He will discover that every person is composed not only of flesh and blood, but of likes, hates, fears, thoughts, sorrows, and desires.

He will discover that to maintain a life of tranquility, he must view his fellow man with pride and distinction; he must believe in his fellow man, not fear or distrust him.

And life flows on within you and without you.
